COMMISSIONER'S SALE

—OF—

LAND!

By authority of two decrees of the Circuit Court of Nansemond county, Va., pronounced on the 12th day of April, 1880, and the 13th day of April, 1888, respectively, in the cause in chancery in said court depending between George B. Jenkins and others, plaintiffs, and Robert C. Jenkins and others, defendants, I shall sell to the highest bidder, at public auction, before the Court-house of said county, in Suffolk, Va., on court day,

MONDAY, MAY 14, 1888,

all that certain parcel of land of which Mary V. Jenkins died seised and possessed, situated on the west side of the county road leading from Suffolk to Isle of Wight Courthouse, and in Newport Magisterial district, in Isle of Wight county, containing 187 acres, more or less, and bounded on the north by the land of Colonel William H. Darden, on the east by said road, on the south by the lands of A. L. Saunders and George W. Whitley, and on the west by the lands of Geo. Griffin and George W. Denson.

TERMS:

Enough of the purchase money to cover the expenses of the sale will be required in cash, and the balance six months after the day of sale, the purchaser to give bond waiving the homestead, with good personal security, bearing interest from the day of sale, in evidence of the deferred payment. Possession given on day of sale, but the title will be retained until the further order of Court or until the purchase money is paid in full.

For full particulars apply to WILBUR J. KILBY, Esq., attorney at law, Suffolk, Va.

L. D. HOLT, Commissioner.
